TIENTSIN DAY BY DAY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

TIENTSIN, 12th December.
Viceroy Yuan returned a few days ago and went straight up to Peking where he had an audience with the E.D. on the 10th. He is credited with having returned full of various plans, and a loan of two million yen from the native merchants in Shanghai to assist the stringency of the market up here. On his return he is said to have been very angry at the persistent high ruling of the premiums on foreign cheques, and orders, which during his absence ran up to 30% and 35%. He immediately issued a very strong notification that the thing must cease somehow or bankers would be punished and whether owing to that or the loan, matters have mended within the past week and now only 15% is being charged. Yuan has ordered the withdrawal of all small cash and is going to make a strong effort to float copper cent coins on the market, and he threatens at anyone is found using the small, discredited cash after the 20th instant, he will be very heavily fined, and coins will be executed. It will be interesting to know how this works.

THE T. P. G. CASES.

The appointment which I mentioned some time ago of one of the late T. P. G. Judges in superintending the copying of the T. P. G. judgment, is still pending, the British Consul, who was appointed as senior Consul-General custodian of the documents, having qualms about giving up the papers even for a day at a time to the officials who originally drew the majority of them up. The Chinese are naturally annoyed and they are trying to push the matter in Peking now. Meanwhile the revision of the T. P. G. cases goes on, British red-tapism preventing the adoption of a straight forward and commonsense course of action.

THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES

A gradual recrudescence of the old familiar spirit is being noted in the bearing of the military police and others towards foreigners. Two or three instances have occurred in which the "police" or soldiers have been caught indulging in boxer gymnastics right behind foreigner backs, in some cases with a drawn sword, and in any case tending to throw ridicule upon them if not to excite absolute hostility on the part of the crowd. That such a thing should be possible on the spot where but two years ago conquering hosts swept the city bare, and with strong detachments of those force still here, speaks volumes for what is likely to occur when these forces are withdrawn. In the spring we may confidently look for all the persuasive force of diplomacy to be directed against the retention of the foreign troops here, and while the great majority of people profess a feeling of satisfied security just now, it is doubtful whether one would conscientiously like to feel absolutely left to China's good faith yet awhile. It does not tend to a feeling of security to know that large Chinese camps are stationed on every side, or me of them only two or three miles distant, and stories of veiled insolence and hostility coupled with mysterious placards and the steady appointment of Manchu officials all combine to keep alive recollections of what has been and may be yet again.

The very marked stress laid upon the worship of Confucius has to my thinking a sinister significance coming at this juncture. However justified the Chinese are in keeping up their own religious doctrines, the effect of this insistence in high places must inevitably be inimical to the foreign creeds, and foster an impression that the Government disapproves of what has been sanctioned by treaty. And how many know even that? The Governor of Szechuan and an official here and there may preach it, but how many of the Chinese realize it, or regard the missionaries other than as rebellious intruders?

THE SIDING DISPUTE.

The Mixed Commission formed of the British and Russian Consuls, Mr. Dering, Commissioner of Customs, Mr. Ed. Cousins of Jardines, Mr. E. P. Allen, Counselor at law, and Mr. Coh of the Russo-Chinese Bank, have been for many weeks holding meetings to discuss the rights of the respective claims. A spirit of amicable compromise is said to have characterized the sittings, and they have arrived at a clear understanding as to what each side will do whichever way the final points are decided. The chief point before the commissioner now is whether a certain village comes under the railway property of the Russian, but it is stated this is not nearly such a vital question as it previously was owing to the exchange of agreements which make the decision satisfactory to both parties whichever way it is given.

NEWCHWANG.

A correspondent from Newchwang writes:—Things are quieter in the Chin Chow district than they were, and the people are not so much in terror of bandits. Trade promised to look up, so the officials started a litan station, but this choked off the native merchants entirely and they cleared off. Instead of the officials fostering the trade as much as possible they promptly set to work to squeeze what little life there was out of it.

Social events include a dance by Lady Susan Townley on the 15th to which many of our Tientsin ladies are going, and Trials by Jury is being put on the boards on the 18th on behalf of the church, which will I hope start our theatrical season.

THE INTRIGUES to place the I.M. Customs in the hands of an international board have been renewed with increased intensity in Peking. The idea seems to be to make the I.G. chairman and a Russian as No. 2, so that when Sir Robert Hart goes, an agent of the Czar will succeed him.—China Gazette.

COTTAM & CO., FOR PANAMA HATS.

THE P. & O. AND LONDON.

As the P. & O. Company have announced that the question of their terminal port in Great Britain is still unsettled, the various stories circulated with much show of authority must be received circumspectly. The latest is that the Company will not leave London, but will berth their big ships now building at Tilbury, and the reason given for the adoption of this policy is that concessions have been made by the railway companies. This is a vague statement signifying little, but the announcement has this in its favour, that it follows the course suggested by leading shipping authorities when the move to Southampton was under discussion. It was then pointed out that whatever other advantages Southampton possesses, London is the unrivalled centre for the distribution of Eastern products, and that although the approaching additions to the P. & O. fleet have outgrown the capacity of the Royal Albert Docks, Tilbury amply suffices for their accommodation. If the P. & O. Company contemplate removing their head-quarters in Southampton, they have probably been largely influenced by the vigorous measures now being taken by City men to improve the port of "London." It will be remembered that the Royal Commission which inquired into this question recommended that a Port authority be constituted, consisting of 40 members, partly nominated and partly elected, and that the expenditure of £7,000,000, required to carry out the necessary reforms should be guaranteed out of the rates. The City Corporation, on the other hand, strongly incline in the opinion that goods should bear all the charges of the port, which should be as self-supporting as Liverpool. Until some agreement is reached upon this crucial point, no reform is possible, and recently a meeting of city merchants, traders, and bankers was held at Mansion House which appointed a Committee to consider the matter, with a view to legislation. The question is one of no little complexity. An unwieldy board of forty with the right to draw upon would conduce rather to extravagant expenditure than efficient administration. A body of experts, with no extraneous financial support, again, might be handicapped by lack of funds. Opinion in the City is adverse to financing the port out of the rates, and a strong business committee may find some way out of the financial difficulty.—Times of India.

MARCONI vs. MASKELYNE.

It is early yet to speculate upon the commercial prospects of wireless telegraphy when the experiments which are to decide whether Marconi has bridged the Atlantic have not been begun. But at a recent meeting of the Western Telegraph Company a statement was made which throws an instructive light on the present position. Departing from the attitude of lofty indifference at first assumed, Sir John Wolfe Barry, who is so intimately associated with the cable system, has come to the conclusion that there may be something in Marconi's telegraph after all. So the Western Telegraph Company put up an installation at Portcurno, in Cornwall, in order that they might themselves test the possibilities of the system, and expedite repairs by communicating with the cable ships when the latter are two hundred miles or so from the shore. The Western Telegraph Company use the Maskelyne not the Marconi system, yet at their Portcurno station they have frequently picked up messages meant for other people, presumably for Marconi's establishment. Marconi recently announced that by a process of tuning his instruments up to a certain pitch, they would record only the messages meant for them and remain indifferent to all others. The interception of messages at Portcurno, and the breakdown of the Marconi system in the manoeuvres of the combined Channel and Mediterranean Fleets, afford proof that this invention has not so far been practically applied. There are, therefore, two problems awaiting solution before Marconi's telegraph can be said to have any commercial prospects; it must be shown that wireless messages can be transmitted over long distances under any conditions, and that Marconi's tuning arrangement will give the isolation of signals which is essential. Assuming, however, that Marconi meets with a double failure, and is unable to establish a trans-Atlantic service, or to isolate his signals, there remains a considerable field of usefulness before wireless telegraphy in communicating with ships approaching the shore and with lightships and such detached stations, but to secure its proper utilization some means of preventing interference with whatever system may be favoured is required. This can only be the outcome of an international agreement similar to those which now regulate the posts and telegraphs. Some time ago the German Government, we believe, made a suggestion to this end. Whatever the upshot of Marconi's present experiments, an international conference to settle the many delicate issues involved is desirable, and if the fails, this course will be the only means of securing any practical results from his and similar inventions.—Times of India.

Intimation.

A FOOLISH OLD IDEA.
It was once thought that a medicine was all the more beneficial for having a nasty taste and smell. We now know that such an idea is perfect nonsense. There is no more reason why medicine should offend the senses than why food should do so. Therefore, one of the greatest chemical victories of the past few years is what we may call the redemption of cod liver oil. Everybody knows what a vile taste and smell this drug has in its natural state. No wonder most people declare they would rather suffer from disease than take cod liver oil, and the emulsions are quite as foul and abominable as the plain oil, no matter what may be alleged to the contrary. Now it is one of nature's laws that a medicine which disgusts the nose and the palate, and also sickens the stomach, can have no good effect as a medicine; because the system revolts against it, and cries out to be delivered from it.

WAMPOL'S PREPARATION
The desired miracle is wrought, and we have the valuable part of the oil, without the other. This effective modern remedy is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of "Yosphosphites" and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. The palate accepts it as it does sugar, confectionery or cream. Taken before meals it goes to the very secret stronghold of digestive disorders: prevents and cures Nervous Dyspepsia, Anemia, Throat and Lung Troubles and all diseases due to impurity of the blood. Dr. G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says: "I shall continue its use with, I am sure, great advantage to my patients and satisfaction to myself." Has all the virtues of cod liver oil; none of its faults. It was made to cure and it sells because it cures. One bottle convinces. Effective from the first dose. "It never disappoints." Sold by chemists "the world over" and A. S. Watson & Co., Limited.

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1902.

IMPORTANT IMPERIAL DECREES.

After a long spell of dullness in Chinese circles, we, in China, have been enlightened by three important and interesting edicts, all on the same date, 13th, 14th moon. One points out that uniformity is of the utmost importance in military matters, but that the various edicts previously issued to insure this have not been paid any attention to, and Chihli and Hupeh are the only places where any real discipline exists. High military officials from Shensi, Shantung and Honan are therefore ordered to go to Chihli and learn how the troops are drilled, while others from Kiangsi, Anhui, Kiangsu and Hunan to Hupeh, and they are then all to return and drill the troops under them in the same way. Yuan Shi Kai and Chang Chi-tung are ordered to see to this at once. A translation of the text of the edict is as follows:—"Uniformity is one of the most essential characteristics of the army, and we have issued frequent edicts to attain this, but we find that little attention has been paid them and things go on the same as before. The armies in Chihli and Hupeh alone are properly drilled, and we now command that high military officials of Honan, Shantung and Shensi be sent to Chihli, and others from Kiangsu, Anhui, Kiangsi and Hunan to Hupeh to learn the systems in operation there, and that they may then go back and diligently drill the forces under them in like manner. Reviews are to take place annually in each province, and the results whether good or bad be strictly reported, and we instruct Yuan Shi-kai, and Chang Chi-tung to arrange for this forthwith." Another edict states that as much inconvenience is experienced by the Chinese Government during any time of trouble, by reason of the telegraph administration being in the hands of the people, and as the governments of all other countries have the telegraphs in their own hands, Yuan Shi Kai and Chang Chi-tung are ordered to raise the necessary money to buy out the private shareholders and make the telegraphs government property. The English version of the edict is as follows:—"Telegraphic administrations in all countries are controlled and owned by the respective governments, so that in time of war there is no impediment to the government using the lines for military purposes. The Telegraph Administration in China is on the contrary organized by the people, and there are often difficulties in times of trouble. This must be remedied, and the lines must revert to the Government so that they may be worked in a proper way, and we hereby command Yuan Shi-kai and Chang Chi-tung to raise the necessary money and buy up all the shares now held by the public, and we will then appoint a special official to superintend the administration. The latest, and, so far as we are concerned, the most important edict orders the same officials to at once see about securing all the shares of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Co., without delay, as the Government desires to acquire the property. There can be little question as to the subtle intention underlying the first two of these edicts if taken at their face value, and the first any way is quite clear as an indication of the intense anxiety to have China pose as a first class pugilist. The second is only partially self-interested on the part of the Government, inasmuch as it is quite clearly due to Chang Chi-tung's influence and is intended for a crushing blow to Sheng Taotai. Our Tientsin correspondent has previously mentioned that Chang Chi-tung, being in financial difficulties, requested a loan of two millions or thereabouts from Sheng. Now comes Chang's chance. Ever since Sheng's blunt refusal of his loan he has been planning to discredit him at Court; and has apparently succeeded in the best possible way, by depriving him of the most lucrative thing in his hands. With regard to the China Merchants, the Government is not likely to benefit much, as instead of the vessels being transferred to another flag as they were, glibly enough in 1900, they will now be smartly captured at the first indication of any trouble, and the edict is, therefore, only a hostage to fortune on the part of the Chinese. So far we have taken the view that, by virtue of the Imperial Decree the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company, latterly conducted with such conspicuous success, has been turned over to Government and become the property of the Chinese Government instead of a private company, yet we find in the strong protest, which is given echo to in the Universal Gazette, and reproduced in another column, that the company would be registered as a limited liability one with foreign capital invested in the concern. Beyond the statement, which we reproduced from our Northern contemporary a few days ago, that a foreign minister sought to obtain, through the good graces of the Empress Dowager, the conversion of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company into a joint stock concern, we have no means to arrive at the truth whether such a measure is contemplated or not. In the strongly adverse criticism of the Universal Gazette we cannot but join issue with its antagonism against the introduction of money from abroad to share with the Chinese in either the profits or the losses of this prosperous company. It must be assumed that in any agreement for the taking over of the concern, whether from the Chinese Government itself or its former owners, the consideration money, which the new company will have to pay, will be decided upon an entirely equitable business basis. It therefore resolves itself into a purely commercial transaction, in which the give-and-take principle has its reciprocity both for the purchaser and the vendor. We cannot therefore see the reason for the bitter animosity displayed by the Universal Gazette. Instances are not wanting where Chinese capital has been readily forthcoming in the investment of concerns purely of European initiation. Chinese shareholders in companies registered under our own laws have surely had no cause to complain of their joint participation with ourselves in any undertaking in which they have found it to their advantage to invest any portion of their money. Indeed, there is a good deal of significance in the spirit, so apparent in our own community, to use a common colloquialism, for dabbling in shares by our Chinese friends. Their business acumen, keen perception and foresight have rarely made them the proverbial lamb which come into the stock exchange on a tip only to go out on a stretcher. They can act, the bull and the bear with just as much, we would not say more, tact and discretion, as the most experienced hand in the Eastern exchanges. We have thus given our opinion that the introduction of foreign capital into the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company, if it could be brought about, would not be to the loss of either one or other of its shareholders. The Chinese, as well as Europeans, would be equal sharers in the advantages or disadvantages of any such conversion. With but one advantage to the former that, being a limited company, registered under our own laws the moral, as well as the physical protection which the force of our legislative enactment and the strength of our fleet would give them in the case of hostilities with a foreign power must be such as to prove of decided advantage to a concern which, at present, is regulated under the laws of a country, for all practical purposes, under the tutelage of the nine contracting Powers, all parties to the Treaty of Peace of 1901.

FIREMAN RUTLEDGE, who had a nasty fall on Saturday night, is doing well at the Government Civil Hospital.

ARMED ROBBERY.—An armed robbery has been perpetrated at a native dwelling house at Chu Sai Wan. A number of Chinamen armed with choppers entered and ransacked a house.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon a Chinese workman employed by Messrs. Funcland and Lowther, while working in a boat near the new dock, fell overboard and was drowned.

A NEW YEAR DINNER.—We are informed that the Hon. Wei A Yuk is giving a New Year dinner to the members of the P. W. D., Sanitary Board, and Police at his residence in MacDonnell Road on New Year Day.

A NEW NINEPENNY STAMP has just been issued for South Australia, bearing a portrait of Queen Victoria. This is undoubtedly the very latest issue of a postage stamp bearing Queen Victoria's head.

H. K. F. C. v. "OLD CRUICKS" was played at Happy Valley during the heavy rain of yesterday afternoon. Both teams were short, the Club playing without a goal keeper. The game ended in a win for the Club by 3-2.

THE C. M. S. N. CO. The Universal Gazette publishes the following:—It is reported that an expectant Treaty of Chihli, named Yang Shih-chi, is about to be given the rank of a Metropolitan official of the 3rd or 4th grade and appointed Director-General of the China Merchants' S. N. Co.

EXTRADITION CASE.—On information from the Acting-Viceroy and British Consul-General, Canton, Inspector Baker arrested Chung Sai and Fong Kwai Chung accused of armed robbery at Sam Chan, China, on the 25th November. They were brought before Mr. Kemp this morning, and the case was remanded till to-morrow.

EVACUATION OF SHANGHAI.—It is curious to learn that the local Chinese, especially the merchants, compradores and traders, are now lamenting the withdrawal of the foreign troops and expressing fears of future troubles as a result of the withdrawal of the garrisons which the Chinese papers and officials have long been crying out for. —China Gazette.

Nothing is more interesting and instructive than artistic work and pretty pictures. Views to please citizen and tourist alike.—You get your choice of the very best at LeMunyon's. —Advt.

P. & O. CO.—At the sixty-second annual meeting of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, held on the 12th of December, the Directors were to recommend a dividend at the rate of 5 per cent per annum on the preferred stock, and a dividend at the rate of 6 1/2 per cent per annum on the deferred stock, together with a bonus of 3 per cent, making with the interim dividend paid in June, a total payment on the deferred stock of 13 per cent for the year.

STEAMERS ON INLAND SEA.—The steamers of the N. Y. K. going south have Kobe at noon or at 1 o'clock in the forenoon as a rule and as a result the more dangerous part of the Inland Sea, and most picturesque part, is navigated during the night. Passengers have so often complained of this, that some of the captains in the Company's service are reported to have petitioned the head office in Tokio to alter the hour of departure from Kobe to 6 o'clock in the morning. It is expected that the petition will be acted upon. Years ago the Shanghai mail steamers used to leave this port at daylight.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN CONNER.—It is with deep regret that we (Kobe Herald) learn that news has been received of the death of Captain George W. Conner, who died from heart disease at San Jose, California. No more popular commander ever trod the deck of a steamer in Asiatic waters and during his many years residence in the East he made a host of friends who will mourn his loss. Captain Conner had retired and settled in California. He was generally known as "Handsome George" for he always had a bright pleasant smile on his face and was very ready to give a helping hand to anyone.

The prettiest thing out is LeMunyon's Calendar for 1903. Your home is incomplete without one. Artistic in design, beautiful and useful. —Advt.

BLAZE AT CROSS STREET.—The Fire Brigade, under Captain Lyons and Inspector Robertson, were summoned to Cross Street shortly before three o'clock this morning, and found house No. 4 was ablaze, and before hoses were ready the adjoining house, No. 2, caught fire. Both of the houses were eventually completely gutted. The fire originated on the second floor, but the cause of the outbreak is not known. The ground floor of No. 4 was a pawnshop and that of No. 2, a grocery establishment. Damage is covered by insurance.

MAJOR GENERAL SIR WILLIAM GASCOIGNE gave a dinner at the Soldiers' Club last evening to the Head Quarter Staff Sergt.-Major R. E., assisted by Sergt.-Major Pickering presided. There was a large attendance present, including Major the Hon. H. W. Trefusis, A.D.C., Scots Guards. His Excellency, in a pleasing and interesting speech, observed that he had to thank the Head Quarter staff for the honour of knighthood, conferred on him twelve months ago, for without their valuable assistance the expedition to North China would not have been crowned with success. He left at ten o'clock and the rest of the evening was devoted to harmony.

NEW CABLE S.I.P.—On the 4th of October, a somewhat rare type of vessel was launched by Messrs. Wigham, Richardson & Co. (Limited), at Newcastle, in the shape of a cable-repairing steamer which has been constructed to the order of the Eastern Extension, Australasia and China Telegraph Company (Limited). The vessel will be fitted with all the latest improvements for the service for which she is intended. She is a spar-decked steamer, 370 feet in length by 44 feet beam, and both the bow and stern have a great deal, to facilitate the work of picking up and paying out cable. The propelling machinery will consist of two sets of triple-expansion engines, which, with the boilers, are being constructed by the builders, and are designed to maintain a speed of 14 knots. The vessel was named Pharo.

THE HONGKONG HIGH-LEVEL TRAMWAYS CO., LTD.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The eighteenth ordinary general meeting of shareholders in the Hongkong High-Level Tramways Co., Ltd., was held at the Company's registered offices, 38 and 40, Queen's Road Central at 3 p.m. 10 days. There were present: Messrs. J. J. Jupp (Chairman), J. Orange, A. H. Mancell, J. A. Tarrant, G. Murray Bain, C. Ewens, G. Rapp, and J. L. Cotter.

The report and statements of accounts have already been published in these columns, and in moving their adoption, the Chairman said:—Gentlemen, the report and statement of accounts having been with you for some days, I propose, with your permission, to take them as read. The traffic receipts for the year again show a substantial advance, but the costs of running have been largely increased, and we must be prepared to face still further increases in the charges accounts in future years. Almost the whole of our rolling stock being imported from England, the fall in exchange on this item alone will have a considerable influence on the running expenses and I propose, during the year the relaying of the permanent way with new rails has been practically completed, and we have a good supply of spare rails in stock. The rolling stock generally is in first class order, but we have thought it advisable to again write down this account $5,000.00 as the wear and tear with the improved time table is much greater than before. A contract has been entered into for covering in the top station, a much-needed improvement, and the work is now nearing completion. Owing to the increasing number of 3rd class Chinese passengers travelling, principally servants of Peck residents, it has been found necessary to provide a railed enclosure at the Garden Road station for their use. As these two items will increase the amount at debit of station and shelter by about $5,000.00 we have written off in anticipation a further sum of $1,240.25 from the total under this heading, bringing it down to $11,000. We feel sure you will approve of our having added $5,000 to Reserve Fund. In the opinion of your Consulting Committee and General Managers, it should be our policy to continue to build up this fund, so that we may be in a strong position to meet any emergency that may arise. Before moving the adoption of the report and accounts, I shall be pleased to answer any questions.

There being no questions, I beg to put the motion to the meeting.
Mr. Jupp—I beg to second, and in so doing I desire to say the shareholders may congratulate themselves on the good manner in which the Directors have conducted this company.

Mr. A. H. Mancell proposed the re-election to the Consulting Committee of Mr. C. Ewens, the Hon. C. W. Dickinson and Mr. J. Orange. The Chairman seconded and the motion was carried.

AUDITORS.
On the proposition of Mr. C. Ewens seconded by Mr. Tarrant, Messrs. Fulerton Henderson and W. H. Potts were re-elected auditors.

The Chairman—That is all the business, gentlemen. Dividend warrants will be ready to-morrow.

KOWLOON SPORTS.

British Troops. Friday and Saturday, 9th and 10th January.—The first four competitions are for officers, shooting to be at 200, 300, and 800 yds, and prize for the aggregate on these competitions; the second four competitions are the same excepting that they are for warrant officers; and the third four are for other ranks. No. 13 is the Grand Aggregate Challenge Cup, best shot of the British Garrison irrespective of rank, a cup being presented to the winner. The other competitions are:—No. 14, Team Competition, Nos. 15, 16, 17, and 18, Garrison Pool, Nos. 19, 20, and 21, Carbine Competitions, No. 22, Revolver Pool, and No. 23, Ladies' Competition.

THE UNREST AT QUARRY BAY.

FURTHER DETAILS.

In our issue last evening we stated, with all reserve, that information had reached us to the effect that a strike had occurred among the natives employed at Messrs. Butterfield and Swire's works at Quarry Bay. This morning a representative of the Telegraph was detailed to make inquiries regarding the truth of the report, and as a result of his investigation we are pleased to learn that, although a strike was imminent towards the close of yesterday afternoon such an undesirable state of affairs was fortunately averted. The situation was by no means pleasant, and an extra guard of police was summoned from the Shaukiwan station, whilst the Central was also notified. Throughout the night a strict watch was kept; but the coolies, numbering upwards of 1,500 native, remained quiet. When the roll was called this morning it was discovered that fifty men had deserted, and they have evidently gone over to the mainland from whence most of them came. A strong detachment of police, under Mr. F. J. Moleley, the Captain Superintendent, visited the works this morning, and we understand a number of constables will remain there until the present temporary unrest has passed. It would appear that many of the coolies, including several headmen, are dissatisfied with the manner in which Indian watchmen have been treating the native women. They make allegations of a serious nature against them, and it was in consequence of these acts that they have resorted to their present methods. From a person in a position to know the true state of affairs, we learn that the native workmen have been dissatisfied for the past few months, and only awaited an opportunity of giving vent to their feelings. Meanwhile, the officials are endeavouring to prevent any further disturbance; for apart from the difficulty there would be in using local coolies to do the work a strike on an extensive scale would affect the trade to no inconsiderable extent. With the exception of those who deserted this morning, the other men are at work, and no doubt the presence of the police will tend to prevent any recurrence of the disturbance.

TURF TOPICS.

The racing season is fast approaching and, though very few of the horses are yet named, the exercising is being watched with considerable interest by most of the local sports. The gallops have lately commenced the course having been opened for practice on Wednesdays and Saturdays. After 1st January the training will commence in real earnest, and the course will remain open during each morning. One of Mr. G. C. Master's horses is doing some steady work but occasionally pulls up lame after his gallops. Col. Hughes has had a duck, with one of his blacks which has gone dead lame and stands no chance. Brilliant, however, is going fit and ought soon to be in fine fettle. His late stable companion Diamo is also waking up a bit and may still prove to be a surprise to the sports. Mr. Morgan Phillips's griffin is looking in fine condition, but appears to be a bit of a handful for his rider. The China ponies, although a small lot, are coming on well and should afford some excellent racing. We hear that Capt. Langland has a day horse.

Mr. Balfour's Health.

Mr. Balfour, who has been suffering from influenza, is now better.

Mr. Chamberlain at Durban.

The most notable features at Durban yesterday were the fervid enthusiasm of his reception and the clear and incisive presentation of the situation by Mr. Chamberlain. He said that no statesmanship could have prevented the fight for supremacy of two proud races. The Dutch have now accepted the paramountcy of the British flag, what then can longer separate the two nations.

Continuous undulating upheavals of the earth continue at Andijan and the surrounding districts, causing the greatest terror.

The Queen's Dinner to Widows and Orphans.

The Queen's dinner to the widows and orphans of London soldiers and sailors who died during the late war was given yesterday. Eighteen hundred guests, assembled, the fares of all being paid by Her Majesty. A most kindly message was received from the Queen during the dinner.

Mr. Chamberlain's Tour.

Mr. Chamberlain has proceeded to Pieter-Maritzburg where an immense and enthusiastic crowd assembled at the Hotel called for a speech, in response to which Mr. Chamberlain appeared on the balcony. He referred to the keener interest that the Mother-Country was now manifesting in colonial affairs, and urged the Colonials to take up the duties of the Grand Empire.

THE QUARRY BAY SPORTS.

Preparations are progressing at the spacious recreation ground of Messrs. Butterfield and Swire at Quarry Bay, for the annual sports to be held on New Year's day. The energetic secretary, Mr. R. H. Stephenson, and his committee have spared no pains to make the Taikoo 1903 Sports a success. This morning a whole army of workmen were engaged erecting, mending, decorating and generally giving the place an appearance of gaiety. At the entrance a bamboo arch is being built and the letters "Taikoo Sports, 1903" is boldly brought out in relief, surmounted by evergreens, with the company's flag floating proudly above. The bicycle track is in splendid condition, and judging by the entries, some very fine races should be witnessed. The prizes are very valuable, and this year is greatly varied, with a sprinkling of silver and ivory ware and Chinese curios. Fully five hundred invitations have been issued and the meeting should be a great success.

THE KWANGSI REBELLION.

Letters from Wuchow, Kweilin, and Nanning and neighbouring villages state that the Kwangsi rebellion has assumed serious dimensions. Troops are daily passing through these cities for the borders of Kwai Chow, and the local military mandarins have been warned to have their troops in readiness to proceed at a moment's notice for the scene of the rebellion. Advices from Canton state that the Government is making arrangements with several European companies for the chartering of ships for the transportation of troops to Pakhoi, and other posts along the Kwang Tung coasts. Most of the principal firms have stopped sending New Year goods via the West and North rivers by junk. Refugees from the seat of the rebellion arriving daily at Canton, are giving vivid accounts of the rising and the suffering and hardships that have had to be endured.

THE C. M. S. N. CO.

A CHINESE PROTEST.

We have several reasons for protesting against the C. M. S. N. Co. being registered as a limited liability company solely for the purpose of giving foreigners a chance to invest money in the concern, the Universal Gazette says. In the first place, the C. M. S. N. Co. is entirely the property of Chinese merchants. Since the Chinese merchants bear all losses which the business of the Company may incur or enjoy all profits, which it may produce, nobody but the Chinese merchants ought to have any control over the company. The more we think of the fact that the Chinese merchants had laboured strenuously for a great many years before they succeeded in bringing the Company into its present prosperous condition, the more we blame the mean act of those outsiders who try to put money into this concern in order to share its profits. If the case be brought before the most ignorant and partial tribunal, it would hesitate to give judgment in favour of such a mean act. At present, there are only a few big enterprises in China, undertaken by purely Chinese merchants; and the C. M. S. N. Co. is the most profitable of all these enterprises. If we admitted foreign capital into this Company, foreigners would surely make it a precedent in future to put money into any big concern in the interior, which the Chinese merchants may have made prosperous after many years' hard work. This would have only one result, viz., the Chinese merchants would not dare to embark upon enterprises again.

Secondly, according to a recognised rule in the west, a country may not exclude the vessels of other countries from navigating the seas or oceans which border on its coast; but it has a right to prevent them from plying its inland waters. This rule is most scrupulously observed in foreign lands, but most recklessly violated in China. As soon as the Treaty of Nanking was concluded, foreign vessels began to navigate the Yangtze-Kiang. After the Treaty of Shimonoseki was signed, foreign vessels began to navigate our inland waters. Thus, step by step, foreigners have been setting their feet upon our rights, and larger and larger are the interests which we keep on losing. Fortunately the C. M. S. N. Co. was established in time to prevent our interests from being entirely snatched away. If the C. M. S. N. Co. be registered a limited liability company and put under the management of foreigners, our merchants would no longer be able to share the profits of the Company, or to control the movements of its vessels.

Lastly, if foreigners be permitted to invest money in the C. M. S. N. Co., it is true that the Chinese shareholders will still have a hand in the management of the Company, but their share in the management could only be nominal, because as soon as foreign shareholders had stepped in, they would add such a great investment on the Company as to make the Chinese capital, already invested, appear insignificant, and would put in an overwhelmingly large number of foreign employees in the Company to control everything.

We have one more remark to make. We have noticed the way in which foreigners used to employ in dealing with us. They always try to make the influence and force of the Chinese Government lend help to their selfish purposes. When they fail to prevail upon the District Magistrate to comply with a demand which they have put forth, they go to see the Prefect or the Taotai. If the Prefect or the Taotai refuses to accede to their request, they will consult the Governor or Viceroy about it. If the Governor or Viceroy cannot see his way to gratifying their desire, they will ask their Minister to speak to the Chinese Government on their behalf. This is the ordinary method adopted by foreigners in dealing with us. But recently they have invented a new method. They know that the Empress Dowager is now awfully anxious to make foreigners think her to be most friendly to them. So, if they want to get anything, they will not deal with the Government but convey their desire to the Empress Dowager and if the Empress Dowager consents to grant it, then nobody will venture to raise any objection.

It is a common custom that in foreign countries the Rulers often receive, officially and socially, the Representatives accredited to their Courts by friendly nations. But, as a rule, they only exchange compliments and respects with the Ministers at these receptions and refuse to discuss international affairs. All international affairs are conducted through the Prime Minister and the Minister for Foreign Affairs. It is incumbent upon our High Ministers to bring this to the notice of the Empress Dowager so that she may not fall into the error of discussing international affairs at her reception of the Foreign Representatives.

COTTAM & CO., FOR GENT'S BATHING GEAR.

The China Times of the 15th inst. has a statement that an Imperial Decree issued on the 13th announces that the Government would take over all the shares in the China Merchants S. N. Co. at par, and place the future control of the company in the hands of H.E. Yuan Shih-kai.

REVIEW.

A CHARMING BOOK.

Verses and Words. Selections from the writings of Tung Chia (J. O. P. Bland), with illustrations by W. D. Straight. Printed by the Oriental Press, Shanghai, and published by Messrs. Kelly and Walsh, Hongkong and Shanghai.

Mr. J. O. P. Bland's selections, most of which have already been published either in the Rattle, the North China Daily News, or in home papers, now appear in book form with neat symbolical woodcuts making an extremely interesting and entertaining volume. At the time that the stories were first brought to the notice of the public they created a very favourable impression, and now that the little work is submitted in a neat and handy form the publication certainly ought to have justice in this present appeal to popular favour. Verses and Words has many claims on our liking, for Mr. Bland is possessed of that rare faculty of appealing to the eye through the imagination, and his descriptions are vivid, fresh, full of colour; while his stories are a succession of short suggestive pictures, that will quickly revive in the memories of old China hands the various phases of Oriental life, and serve to while away a pleasant hour or two for those whose lot is still cast in these Far-Eastern climes. As one turns over these leaves, scene after scene presents itself to the memory. One sees the typical foreigner in relation, not only to the typical native, but also to his fellow countrymen, and walks and shares with him the pleasures of Eastern life, albeit it at times he finds the oppressions and follies still linger at his side. The yarns are all agreeable, and little social incidents are described in a clear, amusing and original style. Mr. Bland's verses are none the less delightful, and contribute in no small degree to the success of a small volume brimming over with charming reading. It should prove a great acquisition to the shelves of any library and especially those of Far Eastern readers.

Commercial.

RICE.

The following is extracted from Messrs. W. G. Hale & Co.'s circular dated Saigon, 18th inst.—New Crop—Unfavorable reports continue to come in, more accentuated from some districts. There is no doubt that the premature and continued drought, which has reigned to a greater or lesser extent all over the Colony, has done serious damage to the crop under foot. Even if wet weather now returns it cannot altogether remedy the evil, while it will have an injurious effect upon the early grain now nearly ripe.

We do not at all desire to present too gloomy a view of the matter, but would not be mistaken by estimating the shortage of our crop at 30% below an average yield.

Prospects of demand from neighboring countries strengthen. Negotiations are continual with Europe, with more or less result.

Business should be concluded early or it will be impossible except at higher figures than present quotations.

So far, contracts in new grain amount roughly to 35,000 tons which are chiefly for Europe and Japan.

In old grain there is little or nothing doing. Supplies are getting scarcer every day and prices maintain impossible figures. One or two more small cargoes could perhaps yet be gathered, after which old grain may be said to be exhausted.

EXPORT DUTY ON HEMP.

According to a special cable, dated New York, December 26th, published in the Manila Cable News, England and Germany have formally protested to the government against the attitude maintained toward the hemp merchants of those countries in the Philippine Islands. England and Germany claim that the United States is not maintaining an "open door" policy toward them in the matter of the export duty on hemp. The note conveying the protest was conveyed to the State Department yesterday and it is understood that the Philippine government will be communicated with in the matter.
